New Jerusalem

Album 42 Stories

Song 1: New Jerusalem

The Bible promises that one day a glorious holy city called New Jerusalem will descend from heaven. This city has no temple because God and the Lamb (Jesus) are its temple. There is no night, no pain, no tears, and no death. Its gates are always open, and nations walk in its light. This song celebrates the beautiful future where God lives with His people forever.

Song 2: The City of Light

A peaceful song describing the New Jerusalem as a city of pure gold and precious stones. God Himself wipes away every tear from our eyes. There is no more sea, no darkness, and Jesus the Lamb is the eternal light. It is the perfect, peaceful home prepared for all who belong to God.

Song 3: La Matrice di Pietro (The Matrix of Peter)

This song traces the story of the Church beginning with Apostle Peter. Jesus called him the rock on which He would build His Church. From Peter through centuries of popes and trials, the Church faced power, sin, and challenges. Yet Jesus Christ remains the true foundation and Head of the Church.

Song 4: Ombre di Roma (Shadows of Rome)

The song looks at the darker side of Rome's history — from powerful families like the Borgias to political struggles inside the Vatican. It shows how even in the center of Christianity, human shadows and systems of power existed. Jesus Christ is the true Light who overcomes all darkness.

Song 5: Nesij-e Asuriyin (The Assyrian Matrix)

A beautiful song about the Byzantine (Eastern Roman) Empire. It tells how emperors like Leo III and Irene ruled through wars and icon controversies. The “Assyrian Matrix” represents the complex spiritual and political web of that empire. In the end, only Christ's light can break through every human system.

Song 6: JapDy-JapDe no Kusari o Tatsu (Breaking the JapDy-JapDe Chains)

This powerful Japanese-style worship song calls for breaking every spiritual chain, false god, and demonic control across nations. It declares freedom in the name of Jesus from all matrices of magic, idolatry, and fear. From Japan to the whole world, Christ's victory is proclaimed.

Song 7: The Oneness of God

A majestic worship song celebrating the Trinity — God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit as One God. It honors Jesus as the center of everything and declares that all creation belongs to Him. The song ends with eternal praise to the Triune God in the New Jerusalem.

Rule in the midst of your foes

*The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet."*

Your people will be willing on your day of power.

*You your victories
take on enemies*
